

I believe that the continued deregulation of the "Baby Bells" will result in higher prices and lower service to those of us in rural areas. It took a threatened lawsuit to get the service that SBC is required by Texas law to provide. Why do you think they will suddenly start servicing the masses in rural America